

Martina Maria Mensi

Resident in Child and Adolescent Neurology and Psychiatry, University of Pavia, C. Mondino National Neurological Institute

Martina M. Mensi is a resident in University of Pavia since 2013. Currently, she is enrolled in the 4th year and will conclude her residency program in august 2017. During these years, she worked actively in C. Mondino National Neurological Institute - Child Neuropsychiatry Unit both in outpatient and inpatient clinics.

She also spent several months in C. Mondino National Neurological Institute - Neurology Unit, in IRCCS S. Matteo General Hospital in the Community Psychiatry Unit - IRCCS S. Matteo General Hospital, Pediatrics Unit and Niguarda Hospital of Milan, Adolescent Neuropsychiatry Unit. Martina's scientific focus is set on children's and adolescent's mental health disorders. It is carried out together with different Universities and Research Institutions of Northern Italy and concentrate on autism spectrum disorders, headaches, eating disorders. Her thesis is researching anorexia nervosa with the aim of observing, evaluating and supporting the family relations.