

Chiara Rogantini

Medicine and Surgery's student, thesis worker in C. Mondino National Neurological Institute - Child Neuropsychiatry Unit

Chiara Rogantini is a Medicine and Surgery's student at the University of Pavia and she is enrolled in the 6th year of course. Currently, she is working at a thesis project on Eating Disorders, focused in particular on the relationship between Psychosis and Anorexia Nervosa and she is going to conclude the course of her studies in July 2017. During these years, she worked mostly as an intern in C. Mondino National Neurological Institute - Child Neuropsychiatry Unit but she also spent several periods in C. Mondino National Neurological Institute - Neurology Unit, in C.P.S. (Psyco-Social Centre)-Operative Psychiatry Unit of Pavia and IRCCS S. Matteo General Hospital, Pediatrics Unit.