

CV MONICA SCHMID:

She achieved a degree in Medicine and Surgery at University of Pavia in 1992, at the same university she specialized in ophthalmology in 1996. Already teacher at University of Pavia in the bachelor of occupational therapy and in the bachelor of Orthoptics, she is the head of Visual Rehabilitation department of ICS Maugeri of Pavia. She contributed to the regional guidelines in the field of prevention and rehabilitation of visual handicapped (Boll. Reg. Lombardia n° 8 del 2001- 2° suppl. straord. Decreto n° 3091 del 13-02-2001) and for this reason she is the regional representative L284/97. She is working with the Italian Blind and Visually Handicapped Association to develop local and national event. She is working with the motor skill and activity centre of Maugeri of Pavia developing clinical trials in the field of blind people balance, those research have brought to the publication of scientific article in international indexed magazine.