

Silvia Torri, graduate of the Academy of Fine Arts of Brera (Set Design), is an Art and Image teacher for first grade secondary schools; since 2017 she collaborates with the Pavia University History Museum in the planning and realization of artistic and scientific educational itineraries, with particular attention to the interdisciplinary exchanges between different languages (painting, sculpture, music, graphic art).